

The New York Times

Student Journalism Institute For National Association of Hispanic Journalists student members

Application Form 2012

The Institute will be held from Jan. 2 through 16, 2012, at the University of Arizona in Tucson. For your application to be considered you must be registered with the NAHJ as a student member and you must supply ALL of the following:

1. This application form completely filled in
2. An attached essay of up to 500 words written by you on why you want to be a journalist.
3. A letter of recommendation from a faculty member of your institution or from an editor of a news organization at which you have been employed or been an intern. This letter MUST be sent directly by the individual making the recommendation, not attached to this application form.
4. Six clips from a student or other publication (including Web publications) of stories you have written, or stories you have edited (with headlines you have written) or six photographs or graphics or layouts. (Photographs and graphics may be from an unpublished portfolio.)

The application AND the letter of recommendation must be postmarked no later than Oct. 29, 2011.

All material should be sent to:

The New York Times Student Journalism Institute
PO Box 2690
Times Square Station
New York, NY 10108

What is your primary interest? (You can check only one, but at the Institute you can also select secondary activities.)

Reporting Editing Photography Graphics Web producing Video

Name _____

School _____

Address at School _____

City/State/ZIP _____

Your phone _____

Year graduating _____

Major _____

Home Address _____

City/State/ZIP _____

E-mail (s) _____

Student newspaper or Website _____

Have you worked for this student newspaper or Website? YES _____ NO _____

If yes, for how many semesters? _____

Any news organizations, other than the student publication, at which you have been an intern or full- or part-time employee

Name, title, address and telephone number of the person who will be writing a letter of recommendation for you:

Student signature and date